Dedication

Miss Elizabeth Connely has been the librarian at Marquette since 1940.

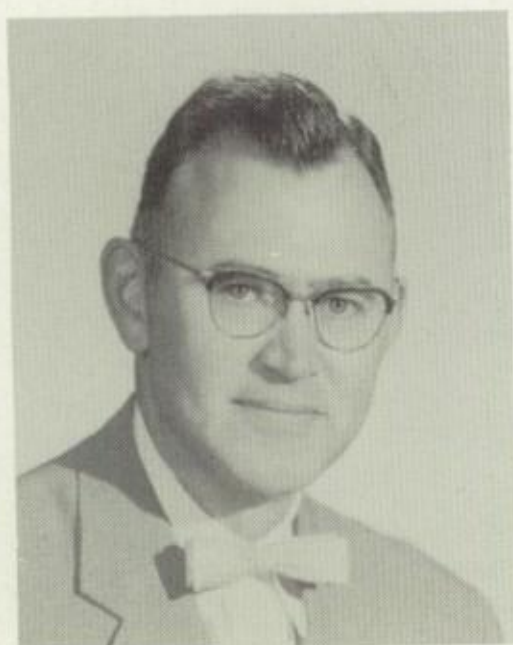

During a senior's 4 years at Marquette, he becomes increasingly aware of her professional competence and friendly interest. Anyone who has prepared a class report can testify to her helpfulness, and those who have debated or worked on the publications owe her a special debt of gratitude. Thanks to her training, the senior leaves Marquette with a firm grasp of the principles of reference work.

As an expression of appreciation we dedicate the 1958 Flambeau to her.

IN MEMORIAM

Rev. Edward J. Laskowski, S.J.

Died August 16, 1957

Fr. Laskowski, though not generally well known by the student body, was the man behind the scenes in the Marquette story. As Minister of the Jesuit community he cared for the material needs of the priests and scholastics. As building superintendent he directly contributed to the comfort and well being of students and faculty alike.

May he rest in peace.

These are the seniors

What are they like? They are like seniors everywhere — yet they retain something all their own. Just what that something is . . . no one really knows. Intangible — some call it spirit . . . The Marquette spirit. The spirit can be seen in all of them — sons of lawyers, sons of skilled workers — all bound together in a common bond. The Marquette spirit. What are these high school seniors? What is their way of life?

They Graduate

... and become after college, engineers, accountants, journalists, physicists, lawyers ... but a deeper transition takes place during their four years at Marquette High. Apparent in their student days ... in their classes ... in the crowded stadium ... in the halls ... in the chapel. After graduation they carry it with them ... into their home life ... their religious life ... their work. They are Marquette Men.

CLASSES

An atmosphere of study prevailed in J-1, but out of class, our boys activated the activities: Bugge, our Conclave man, was joined by Carlson, who served as the secretary. . . . Ehrle, Kulczycki, Carlson, Voelker, and Bugge were Sodality officers. . . . Vogt was our gift to the Varsity football squad, while Fina assisted as manager. . . . In B-Team buckets we boasted Binder and Bugge, and in baseball, Carlson and Forster. . . . Trackmen were Gramling, Kulczycki, Rice, Short, and Vogt. . . . J-1 held the Websters together, what with Dulde, Carlson, Ehrle, Dunphy, Kemmer, Mavis, Molenda, and Rowe all standouts. . . . Gramling was our only swimmer, while Mavis played a hot trumpet for the band.

THAT CERTAIN FEELING: Ehrle, Kunath, and Palise exemplify the mood of the day.

JUST CHECKING: Lohmann sneaks a peek at Roehl's paper.

A better class than J-2 you couldn't wish for: Siewert was our choice for Conclave, while Graf was alternate. . . . We sparkled in football, placing Bach, Lukaszewicz, Graf, Wegmann, and Siewert on the Varsity eleven. . . . Siewert earned an All-Conference post for his fine play. . . . The Varsity basketball team was aided by Smith and Siewert. . . . The track team gained from the services of Bonneau, Bach, and Ziehwein, while Finkler and Smith ran in cross country. . . . Bistricky, Lauerman, Smith, and Byron tossed the horsehide around. . . . Cordes, Finkler, and Stanchfield went splashing for the swimmers. . . . Bistricky and Rossa played in the band while Cordes and Roehl sang along—with the choir. . . . Bonneau was a guard on the JV's.

biak, T. Trinko, D. Metz, J. Laubach, R. A. Fischer, H. Calvey, M. O'Connell. Front Row: J. Schwai, R. Zehnder, P. Schelble, A. Carollo.

We were a good group, old J-3: Kersten and Ewens were our mouthpieces in the Conclave. . . . Hennen, Pileggi, and McGowan played Varsity football. . . . Hegarty was a "stilt" for the Varsity five, while Monday sparked the B squad. . . . McGowan played with the baseball team. . . . Trinko and Metz got all wet with the swimming team. . . . Kersten was our only "Webbie," but a good one. . . . Mayer was a good man with a stick for the golf team. . . . Bruch massaged the organ for daily Mass. . . . Sobczak and Metz stretched vocal cords for the choir. . . . Schwai and O'Connell ran cross country; Pileggi ran track; Carollo did a good job in both. . . . Ewens was a net star for the racquet squad.

Back Row: J. Cairnes, R. Verberg, T. DeRuiter, J. Stich, R. Hornak. Front Row: W. Doran, J. J. Kelly, C. Schilling, J. L. Neis, J. McDonnell, J. Boblick.

LOOKING FOR ADVICE: Bulowski isn't listening; but Branch drinks it all in.

The showplace of MUHS, J-4: We showed off Knuese every other week to the Conclave, while Mihm, our alternate, stayed behind to supervise. . . . We gave the Varsity bucket team 3/5 of the first string in DeRuiter, Hornak, and Mihm. . . . Thiel was our contribution to the Varsity pigskin group. . . . Kelly and Piaskoski made quite a splash among the mermen. . . . Hornak and Mihm parred as golfers. . . . Stich bolstered the band. . . . Kelly and Neis sang for Fr. Portz's crew. . . . No one could hold a candle to Doran and McDonnell, acolytes. . . . Jacques was an efficient sacristan.

Back Row: T. Arndorfer, C. Knuese, R. Gansler, T. Thiel, P. J. Piaskoski, C. Bukowski. Middle Row: J. H. Branch, K. Egide, G. Croal, J. Mihm, B. O'Lavin, P. Sipusic. Front Row: R. Jacques, T. McMullen, J. Kophamer.

The scene is J-5: We gave Welch the nod for Conclave and Grimmer for his alternate. . . . Dalum and Mathie hit the cinders for us in track and cross country. . . . Sisk and McCormack showed their stuff on the Varsity eleven. . . . Donohue made the senior basketball team, while Dalum played B-Team. . . . Welch worked hard behind the scenes for the Prep Players. . . . Guy was a good one on the swimming squad. . . . Boll was a bat-and-ball man this spring. . . . Dalum was speedy at the Journal Relays. . . . Stephens and Becker were a couple of good photographers for the Flambeau. . . . Schlidt was in Br. Joyce's sacristan clan.

MID-PERIOD NOURISHMENT: Sonnenberg's thumb is so mild, so easy-drawing.

A Jailhouse Rock, that's J-6: Coffey visited the Conclave twice a month and brought back the news; Haushalter was his ace substitute. . . . Alvarez, Mueller, Woods, Fenlon, and Krill formed our large gift to the swimmers. . . . Haushalter and Buscaglia helped strengthen the Hilltop line. . . . Kohnke contributed his able services to the band. . . . Kilzer and Haushalter ran long and well for the track team. . . . Itzin raised curtains for the stage crew. . . . A top lung-buster for the choir was DiNanni. . . . Haushalter did a good job in the Milwaukee Journal Relays.

J-7 really jumps: Walker was our Conclave representative. . . . Fleming ran a close second as alternate. . . . We had some big men on the football Varsity: Engelhardt, Keppeler, and All-Conference picks, Dermody and Walker. . . . Engelhardt and Dewey were J-7's gift to the baseballers. . . . Dundon and Walker were stalwarts of the track squad. . . . Kieren and Krembs blew up a storm inside the band room and out. . . . A great help to Mr. Kopenski's B-Team was Engelhardt. . . . Wilkinson made the choir-loft rafters ring. . . . Honkamp was a member of the Prep Players' sharp stage crew.

HORSE LAUGH: Everybody gets the joke except Keppeler.

Back Row: D. Bergerson, T. Kieren, T. Dewey, M. Fleming, J. Quesnell, J. Gallagher. Front Row: J. P. Chole, A. Krembs, M. Nestler, F. Langenohl, E. Charette, P. Kain, R. Bartz.

Back Row: D. Fedler, P. Hughes, G. Nadolski, M. Korb, T. Whipp, D. Rinzel, T. Butler, G. Harrington, D. McNally, M. Henk, W. Kennedy. Front Row: J. Gregorski, M. Gillick, B. C. O'Neill, K. Amend, J. Utzerath, D. Fuys, W. Wollner, R. Kubal, M. Harris.

OH, THOSE STUDIOUS SOPHOMORES! S-1 really hits the books.

We have lots to be proud of in S-1: Whipp was chosen as our Conclave man, and Gillick as his alternate. . . . Rinzel, Sazama, Wollner, and O'Neill were officers in the Soph Sodality. . . . We placed McNally on the Varsity football squad, and Skwierawski, O'Neill, Kennedy, Henk, Kubal, Harris, and Gillick on the Sophomore eleven. . . . Our lone Varsity buckets man was Rinzel, but Thon was a first-class manager of the team. . . . We boast a host of Websters: Thon, Korb, Lukes, Harrington, Gregorski, Gillick, Amend, and Colbert. . . . Track called upon the services of McNally and Butler.

Back Row: J. Onestinghel, G. Bruckner, R. Deysach, D. F. Schaefer, G. Oreskovic, M. Skwierawski, A. Thon. Middle Row: A. Borgealt, J. Metzger, B. Hammel, M. Colbert, J. Lukes, G. Monday, J. Sazama. Front Row: R. Kuntner, J. R. Walker, D. Quinlan.

Back Row: J. McNamara, J. Pollock, E. Jaques, R. Maruszewski, J. Johnston, R. Johnson, J. Rice, E. Farrington, J. R. Park. Front Row: J. Ecks, G. Dreist, C. Krampf, J. Foran, J. Reichenberger, A. Rajec, J. Weber, R. Simske, J. Mackin.

We in S-2 are popping buttons off our chests: Robak was given the Conclave nod in our room, with Keenan becoming alternate. . . . Sodality officers were Michalski, Robak, McNamara, Keenan, and Park. . . . S-2 was represented on the Varsity eleven by Keenan, Hanson, and Michalski. . . . Soph footballers were Mangan, Pollock, Sustar, and Simske. . . . We gave three managers to the basketball cause: Michalski managed the Varsity, and Mangan and Kolata, the JV's. . . . Our young man with the horn was Robak. . . . Ecks, Robak, McNamara, and Rice lent their golden voices to the Websters for the season. . . . Hanson, Keenan, and Antlfinger were our big guns on the track squad.

Back Row: J. Geyer, M. Urmanski, D. Mangan, T. Keenan, R. Fleissner, J. Kolata, R. Little, J. Michalski. Middle Row: M. Czerwinski, R. Roloff, T. Drolshagen, T. Tole, J. Voigt, R. J. Brust, D. Demitros. Front Row: J. Robak, J. T. Hansen, T. Antlfinger, J. Sustar. Not Pictured: T. J. Schultz.

Back Row: M. Kress, F. Cherny, J. C. Hansen, P. Sheehan, J. Holleran, D. Robinson, J. Szymanski. Middle Row: T. Laeser, C. Sanfelippo, C. Nelson, T. Murphy, D. Schulz, M. McGlynn, J. Graber. Front Row: J. J. Schmitt, J. Bojar, P. A. Fischer, C. Hamm.

WHERE'S THAT QUESTION MARK AGAIN?

Things are quiet in Mr. Kelly's class.

You'd like S-3: Our Conclave representative is Schulz, with Sheehan backing him up as alternate. . . . Our only Varsity pigskin man was Maruszewski, but we had a big bunch on the Soph team: Gehl, Sheehan, Sladky, Wasielewski, and Holleran. . . . Sodality officers were Maruszewski, Laeser, and Bojar. . . . Sheehan played on the senior cage squad, and Hayes looked good for the Bees. . . . Our gift to the Websters was Molenda. . . . Schmitt was our lone merman. . . . Listwan and Sladky helped make the band sound good.

Some say S-4 is the best Soph class. We have to agree: Wilmot is our Conclave man, along with Goldammer as alternate. . . . Riedl is one of the Sophomore Sodality prefects. . . . Last fall we presented the Varsity football team with two S-4 products, Bruett and Kriofske. . . . On the Soph eleven were Riedl, Voigt, Shebesta, Desmond, Gigl, Cherney, and Caravella. . . . Conley and Bruett played JV buckets. . . . Conley saw the scenery as a cross country harrier. . . . Doyle, Wilmot, and Conley represented us in track. . . . Hendy sang with Fr. Portz's gang. . . . Members of the Webster Club were Tierney, Carpenter, and Seramur.

Back Row: E. Hurley, B. Bielefeld, F. Schmidt, D. Gehl, D. Reinbold, D. Bertling, J. Schaller, R. Skowlund. Front Row: D. Shebesta, R. Wilmot, J. Fuchs, M. Mankowski, D. Jaster, W. Klug, J. Carpenter, J. Tierney.

S-5 is the pearl of the Soph classes, if there is such a thing: Schimelfenyg was our Conclave mouth, and his sidekick was Lang. . . . Mierzwa and Kustra were our big names with the pigskin. . . . Zurn provided our only offering to the Webster Club. . . . We furnished the choir with the talents of Schuh, Stefan, and Kelly. . . . Luechtefeld was our man in the band. . . . Zurn provided the punch in the stage crew.

BOOKWORMS: S-5 takes school seriously.

Back Row: R. T. Clark, F. Luechtefeld, M. Mierzwa, T. Schuh, J. Werra, G. Stefan, J. Lang. Middle Row: W. Kwapy, M. Brophy, T. Rebek, P. F. Kelly, J. Hoff, E. Spiegelberg, R. Kufahl. Front Row: T. Ewens, J. Arndorfer, J. Snyder. Not Pictured: R. Kustra.

S-6 is a real mad ball: We picked Fallon and Horter to go and case the Conclave for us. . . . Two men on the Varsity football team were from S-6: Johnson and Horter. . . . Piaskoski, Fallon, Kleist, Cavanaugh, and Dunn played with the Soph pigskin. . . . Johnson played on the JV cage team and on the track squad. . . . Piaskoski dog-paddled for the swimming team. . . . Hilmer and Palmer represented S-6 in the MUHS band. . . . Zawodny acted up in the Prep Players.

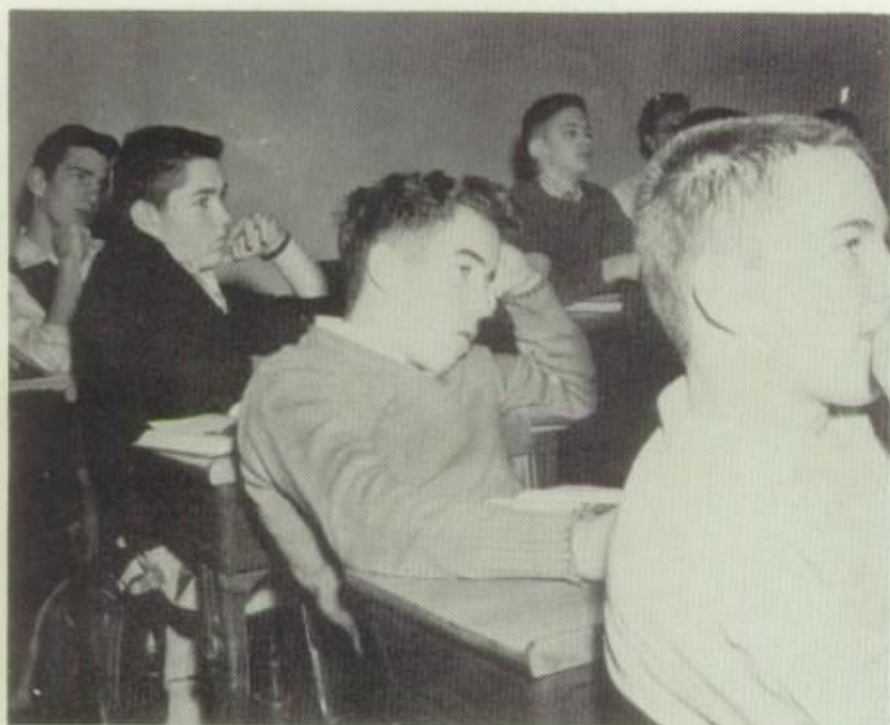

HEY TEECH, I KNOW: Leahy seems to have the answer; no one else does.

FOUR OF A KIND: Wamser, Wacker, Sweeney, and Sheahan don't feel up to it today.

Life in the jungle: Rockhill took our requests to the Conclave; Kain, our alternate, usually stayed behind. . . . Lots of our boys played Sophomore football: Brophy, Eberhardt, Crowley, Kaestner, Kain, Wacker, Mooney, Putchinski, and Wamser. . . Papin was a Varsity grid-iron man. . . . He also played B-Team basketball, along with Crowley. . . . Bartosch was our only "Webbie." . . . Day was our presentation to the MUHS band. . . . Gross and Miotke were a pair of stage crew men.

Back Row: S. Gross, A. Schneider, J. Miotke, R. Rockhill, J. Papin, R. Schmitz, T. O'Brien. Front Row: M. Eberhardt, D. Wamser, R. Berghammer, J. Leahy, T. Putchinski, R. Day, J. Blommer, S. Bartosch. Not Pictured: P. Crowley, R. Gregrich.

The life of F-1: We called upon Bertram and Jonovic for Conclave duties. . . . We placed four men on the excellent Frosh eleven: Hardy, Mago, Reiton, and Schlosser. . . . Bartness, Lemerond, Bash, Kuetemeyer, and Mackin, not to mention Sprifke and Stapleton, all talked it up for the Webster Club. . . . Bartness, Melotik, and Wernz were F-1 products playing Frosh buckets. . . . Our only swimmer, Ball, really had one against opponents. . . . Bash, a band member, should have been promoted to cymbals. . . . The voices of the class, Lemerond and Kuetemeyer, were both in the choir.

DOESN'T ANYBODY KNOW THE ANSWER? F-1 shows us some softly-swaying palms.

Front Row: M. Schaefer, G. Schnabl, K. Clancy, P. Malone, J. Gauer, T. Burg, D. Shields, R. Bayer, T. Kleczka.

THERE'S NO REASON TO GET EXCITED: F-2 usually doesn't

There is no place like F-2: Heckel and Gauer represented our varied interests in the Conclave. . . . A bunch of our boys made the Freshman eleven: Schaefer, Burke, Delahunt, Gordon, McKnight, Polanis, Reynolds, and Schoenecker. . . . We gave the swimming team two fish, Wegmann and Heckel. . . . Meyers, Schoenecker, Reynolds, Johnson, and Clancy were all Webster Clubbers. . . . The band gladly accepted Gauer, Short, and Harbort when we offered. . . . Malone lifted his voice for the choir. . . . McGarty, Malone, and Delahunt were Frosh cagers, while Clancy, Gauer, and Kress played Midgets.

Heaven on earth (as far as school goes) is F-3: We appointed Johnstone to the Conclave and Gramling as his substitute. . . . We supplied the Websters with some live talent in Brechtel, Cullen, Kleczka, Paulus, Meurer, Schmitt, and Shanahan. . . . Talent of another kind (on the Frosh footballers), was evident in Grellinger, Gramling, Kallenberger, Gramins, and Rebholz. . . . We had four good bucketmen in Johnstone, Gramins, Rebholz, and Lang. . . . We gave Finley and Prawdzik to the band, Kleczka to the choir. . . . Woods floated for the swimming team. . . . Cullen acted like a Prep Player.

TIME FLIES: Fr. McAuliffe checks it while F-3 checks all but teacher.

PRODUCTION LINE: A study in mass education in F-4.

What a class, that F-4! We sent Fetherston to the Conclave and held Cary in readiness. . . . A gang of our boys made good on the Freshman football team: Abert, Cotter, Pallasch, Fetherston, Geyer, and Baker. . . . In buckets we were no slouch either, placing Cary, Graf, and Schaefer on the Frosh squad, and Branch, Roe, and Abert on the Midgets. . . . The Webster Club also benefited from the likes of Cotter, Dobrogowski, Gorski, Meuler, and Calvey.

This was a great year for F-5: Klotz and Pfau were voted into the Conclave to represent us. . . . We can boast of a flock of Freshman grid-iron men: Carr, Pfau, Dean, Croke, Owan, Casper, Dohearty, Graf, and Dunlap. . . . In basketball, too, F-5 supplied the team with talent: Croke, Sheehan, and Dunlap played for Mr. Kelly's Frosh gang, while Grimmer and Keane bolstered the Midget squad.

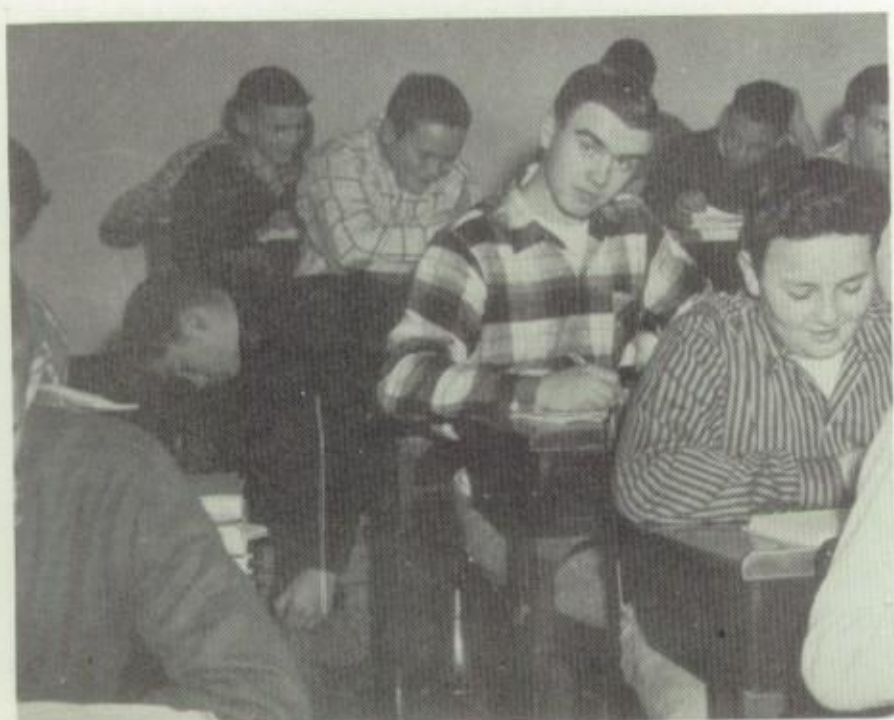

PEACE AND QUIET: Study reigns supreme in F-5.

DID SOMEONE CALL? The photographer was caught in the act.

A well-organized mad-house is F-6: We selected Reiske and McGavick as our Conclave men. . . . Our class had a crowd on the first-year pigskin team: Sneider, Fridl, Gronkiewicz, Elton, Langhoff, Marsack, McGavick, and Quirk. . . . Ehm was the efficient manager of the group. . . . Our lone Webster man was Hetzel. . . . Schunk, Hochhaus, and Roecker made beautiful music together in the band. . . . Our gift to the swimmers was Greiff. . . . Four F-6'ers, Chmielewski, Kukla, Marsack, and Langhoff, played Freshman buckets.

Our waterboys on the swimming team were Boehme, Cody, Bohusch, Werra, and Cordes. . . . Our talkative Websters were Bohusch, Schweitz, Cody, and Martinson. . . . Boehme and Bohusch were our duet in the band. . . . Cordes and Martocci gave forth for the choir.

Fourth Place Climaxes Up and Down Season

The varsity football team finished the season with a record of three wins, two losses, and two ties, to finish fourth in the Conference. With a little help from Lady Luck, however, the team could have finished at the top of the standings. The defense especially was outstanding, and, as a result, only one team in the conference scored more than six points against it.

The season opened with a non-conference skirmish against DeLaSalle of Chicago. Conforti and Dermody both scored touchdowns, Conforti's coming on a 55-yard run. Failure to convert extra points proved the Hilltop downfall and DeLaSalle walked off with a 14-12 victory.

The first Catholic Conference game for the Hilltop was against Pius. Pius scored once and then held on desperately to win, 6-0. Marquette never really got started in this game.

The first victory of the season came over an outclassed Notre Dame eleven. Five touchdowns were scored by the Hilltoppers, with Dermody, Conforti, Collopy, and Englehardt all finding paydirt.

Tough Bosco was next, and for once a lineman received all the glory. It was Phil Bach who made Marquette's touchdown. He intercepted a misguided aerial and rambled 34 yards into the end zone. Bosco scored in the third quarter, and the game ended with the score tied 6-6.

The Hilltoppers got back on victory road with a 28-0 victory over Cathedral. This time Terry Keenan was the big show, as he personally scored two touchdowns. Dermody and Graf also scored to lead the Marquette offensive.

Messmer proved to be a stumbling block for the resurgent Marquetters. They scored one touchdown and then protected it with a fine defensive effort. Near the end of the game, however, Graf plunged over for a touchdown. The final score was 6-6.

Memorial followed and proved to be only fodder for the Marquette machine. Conforti scored twice; and Dick Schaefer, not usually noted for his speed, scored once by sprinting 32 yards with a Memorial fumble. Dermody and Ryan also scored to make the final 32-0.

The final game, homecoming, was against rugged St. Kate's. They scored three times to thwart any Hilltop hopes of an upset. Young, after passing tremendously, scored the lone Marquette touchdown on a short sneak. The final was 21-6.

At the end of the season several of the players received honors. Six squad members were placed on all-conference teams. Dick Schaefer, besides being all-conference, received team awards for sportsmanship and for being most valuable.

Dunphy, Kleist, Mooney, Arndorfer, Gillick, Coach Kelley. Top Row: Crowley, Skierowski, Putchinski, Voigt, Kaestner, J. Finkler, Wasielewski.

The Sophomore team under the fine direction of Coach Kelley and Coach Kenney, finished with a record of 3 victories and 3 defeats. Three close losses, at the hands of East, Country Day, and Washington, prevented the squad from compiling a better record. Backs Mooney and Dunn and guard Holleran look like fine prospects for next year's varsity.

Front Row: Rebholz, Dohearty, Gramins, Dean, Schlosser, P. Gramling, Pfau. Second Row: Renzel, J. Casper, Carr, M. Quirk, Abert, D. M. Sheehan, Croke, Langhoff, Delahunt, Manager Fetherston, Mr. Kenney. Top Row: K. Burke, P. Hayes, Mago, Kallenberger, McGavick, Reiton, Baker, Gronkiewicz.

The Freshman team this year, due to the number of players, was entered in two leagues. It tied for first in the Suburban Conference and finished close to the top in the Catholic Conference. The combined record was 8 victories and 4 defeats. The team was light, but extremely rugged. The main cogs in leading the Frosh to victory were usually linemen Schlosser and backs Graf and Grellinger.

Varsity Closes Fast to Finish Second

The Varsity basketball team, under the supervision of Coach Dodds, finished the season with a record of sixteen wins and six losses. The starting five of Bob Hornak, Bill Haushalter, Mo Crivello, Tom Donahue, and Jack Mihm boosted the team into second place with four straight victories at the end of the season. High points in the year were two victories over Pius and a victory over St. Catherine's in the final game. Bob Hornak was rewarded for his excellent play by gaining a position on the all-conference five.

The Junior Varsity again this year ransacked their conference. Ably directed by Coach Kopenski, the boys never let up and went on to compile the amazing record of twenty-one consecutive victories. The defense especially was outstanding, limiting opponents to an average of only 27.7 points per game. The team was led by center Frank Binder, scoring leader; guards Bonneau and Monday; and forwards Engelhardt, Papin, and Hayes.

FRESHMAN VARSITY

All Shook Up

Cary shoots while Rebholz positions for the rebound.

The freshman team, although the season's record was only mediocre, still had some sparkling moments and, in the end, was able to boast of some fine players. Close games were the exception rather than the rule this year and, sad to say, these games usually ended in defeats for the Blue and Gold. Coach Kelley's charges were led by center Kukla forwards Rebholz and Chmielewski, and guard Dunlap. Rebholz and Dunlap, especially, look like good bets to advance next year.

This year's Midget team, coached by Mr. Kenney, compiled the excellent record of thirteen victories and only five defeats. The first string for the small men was composed of Kress, McRae, Keane, Johnstone, and either Lang or Bartness. Victories came over such teams as St. Monica, St. Sebastian, St. Mathew, and St. Pius (2). Two of the defeats came at the hands of bigger squads Dominican Freshman and St. Rose CYO.

Front Row: J. Woods, V. Cordes, J. J. Kelly, D. Boyle, J. Weber. Second Row: J. Carpenter, Grieff, F. Schmidt, Ball, Paul Piaskoski, Metz. Third Row: Alvarez, Krill, Guy, Riedl, T. Woods, R. Cordes. Fourth Row: T. Weber, Hooper, Trinko, App, Voss, Franzen, Father Nawn.

Swimming has now come into the big time here at the Hilltop. The past few seasons have shown that it is another sport in which Marquetters excel. This year was certainly no exception, as Father Nawn's boys compiled the very fine record of ten victories and only three defeats and also produced a national champ, Pete Piaskoski. Two of the team's defeats came at the hands of City powerhouses, Pulaski and Custer. With many underclassmen on the team, prospects are bright for the future.

Bowling

The Big Beat

Bowling continued this year as the big intramural interest on the Marquette campus. The senior division, led by Mr. Michuda, and the junior division, moderated by Mr. Hottinger, both attracted many students; and the scores of these students proved that the Hilltop has many excellent bowlers. With the number of underclassmen entered, this sport promises to flourish for many years.

Cross Country

The Cross Country team, under the capable direction of Mr. Brennan, had a very successful season, especially in view of the circumstances. Flu and personal injuries played havoc with the team during the entire season. In spite of these setbacks, the team compiled a record of six victories and five defeats. The victories were over Pulaski, West Allis Hale, Boys' Tech, Juneau, Nicolet, and West Bend. The losses were suffered at the hands of West Allis Central, Rufus King, Lincoln, De Paul (Chi.), and Sheboygan Central. The team was led by major letter winners, Jim Dwyer, Ed Calvey, Jack Pelner, and Tony Carollo.

ACTIVITIES

Flambeau Newspaper

The Big Wheels. The editor of the FLAMBEAU NEWSPAPER, Jam Fox, discusses the forthcoming edition with Mr. Dervin, the paper's moderator. Among the new additions to the paper have been a literary section, editorials that are more pointed and are on every phase of student activity, and the off-beat feature on the bottom of the second page. This year the staff has striven to have more balance in the paper.

Smiling Sams. Taking time out from their busy schedule to pose for a picture are: back row, R. Josten, a writer; T. Bruett of the business staff; front row, J. Custer, a typist, and J. Stollenwork of the circulating staff. Because of hard workers like these the newspaper comes out on time and in fine condition.

Hilltop Watchers. The staff looks on as the sports editor, F. Probst (seated), sweats over his work. The rest of the staff is composed of (L. to R.) J. Mitchell, D. Schmidt, W. Cary, T. McCann, J. Young, C. Kosikowski and H. Hoeper. The "Sports Static" and "Athletes of the Month" were the monthly accomplishments of these men.

Headline Gang. The front page of the newspaper is written by these able fellows of the staff: (L. to R.) G. French, J. Kringel, T. Dicristo, T. Caffrey, T. Neman, P. Powondra, and J. Mackowski. Headed by Neman, this group wrote articles concerning coming events of the school and various activities of the important school organizations.

Deuce Pagers. The second page is kept in fine shape because of the work of these men: (L. to R.) D. Doyle, A. Konopka, J. Chojnacki, M. Gauer, M. Egan, M. Kalton. Directed by Gauer, regular articles such as the "Senior Portraits," "Spiritual Father's Column," and the "Editorials" were always found to be very interesting.

Political Science Club

With the many important current events of this year the club was kept busy. With Fr. Healy as moderator the club kept informed on national and international happenings. The ever awake members are: at the board, T. Dulde. Front Row: D. Nickel. Second Row: Dunker, A. Konopka, W. Wacks. Standing: J. Mavis. Back Row: Fr. Healy, T. Whipp, T. Mazza, A. Czarra, T. Dicristo, M. Lackenmann.

The underclassmen of the Science Club pursue scientific knowledge through the help of the club and the movies, tours, and lectures which it sponsored. The students are: King, Seaman, Miotke, Bergesen, Altman, Luebke, Johnson, Greiff, Auer, Custer, Nickel, and Neis.

Science Club

The Senior members of the Science Club get a closer look at the many uses of transistors. The demonstration and lecture was given by a representative of Bell Telephone. The interested members are: Jerome Park, W. Burke, J. Shaner, D. Reinbold, G. Peters, J. Fiala, G. Stiglich, Mr. E. Schaefer of Bell Telephone, P. Miller, M. McCormick, P. Fleming, C. Masters, J. Madden.

Mr. Zinke
Band Director

Fr. Arcuri
Band Moderator

Band

The SENIORS formed the foundation for the band. Their hard work helped to lead the band to bigger and better things. They were of great value to the director, the moderator, and the rest of the band. The band is sorry it has to lose such mainstays as: M. Gauer, G. French, T. Neman, J. Fiala, R. Felder, M. Zeps, T. Harris, T. Caffrey, T. Fahl, E. Dunker, J. Baggott.

Although the JUNIORS have the smallest representation in the band, they are by no means silent; in fact they're the loudest, for most of them are in the trumpet section. Juniors are heard through the playing of T. Mavis, T. Rossa, W. Kohnke, J. Stich, T. Kieran, K. Bistricky.

Having some experience, the SOPHOMORES showed ability and they really helped the quality of the band. The men with a future in the band are: Front Row: D. Reinbold, Day, Robak, Colbert. Back Row: Listwan, Luechtefeld, Packy, Sladky.

The FRESHMEN, although the least experienced, seemed to have come through in excellent style. Their fine playing showed us that freshmen can be an asset to an organization. The freshmen are: Front Row: J. Boehm, G. Finley, J. Bohusch, D. Roecker, A. Harbort, J. Gauer. Back Row: J. Short, P. Lesage, T. Hochhaus, T. Prawdzik, L. Shunk, D. Bash.

The ever present pep band was a guide in the cheering and a booster of spirit at games. Here the pep band with: Back Row: M. Zeps, J. Baggott, R. Felder, T. Kieren. Front Row: D. Doyle, J. Mavis, J. Robak and T. Caffrey, helps the cheerleaders at a pep rally. The pep band was a very lively group of swinging musicians this year.

In the morning before classes, the CHOIR holds its practice sessions. Here Fr. Portz, arms raised, tries to bring out the notes that should be sung. But the half-awake members find it rather hard to co-operate.

Choir

Through much practice the second tenor section was a big asset to the choir and the fine quality which it displayed throughout the year. The second tenors are: Front Row: R. Sobczak, Meyer, D. Metz, Kuelemeyer, T. Di Nanni. Back Row: C. Roehl, R. Cordes, Schuk, V. Cordes, J. Custer.

The group which probably harmonized the best was the first tenor section which, along with the rest of the choir, through serious practice, put on a fine Christmas program. The able first tenors are: at the organ, M. Bruch. Front Row: Mezei, Fr. Portz. Second Row: Vest, Horak, Boehme. Back Row: Wachs, Hendy, and Stefan. Absent is Malone.

The rich sounds from the choir were those of the basses who proved to be quite capable of carrying the song. The basic basses are: Front Row: Neis, Kleczka, Reinbold, Ehlman, P. Kelly. Back Row: Wilkenson, Shoner, Powandra, Lehaond. Absent is J. J. Kelly.

The Stamp and Coin Club grew in popularity this year. The club encouraged its members to better their collections of stamps and/or coins. The stamp savers and the coin collectors are: (L. to R.) Packee, Harrington, Carr, Peters, Fr. Duffy, the moderator; Riedl. Seated: Nickel, King, Hebein, Bernier, Custer.

Coin and Stamp Club

Cartoonist's Club

The eye catching signs around school this past year were due mostly to the efforts of the Poster Club. Under the direction of Mr. Brennan, the club publicized the school's events. The paint splashers included: G. Pfeffer, G. Falk, G. Peters, J. Madden, N. Gumerman, G. Stiglich, J. Fobian, K. Ksobiech.

Caught in the act of doing their job, the senior sacristans are the men behind the scenes who care for the altar. In charge is Brother Joyce (far left) who sees that: (L. to R.) J. Madden, C. Masters, D. Reinbold and Lesch do the job right.

Sacristans

Doing the housework around the altar are the Junior sacristans. These are the men who keep the rugs clean and everything spic and span. They are: A. Schlidt, J. McDonnell and C. Neidhoefer.

Acolytes

With Mass said daily for the entire student body the acolytes were kept busy throughout the year. The new Mass schedule made it easier for the students to get Holy Communion often. The busy men are: Front Row: Den-Boér, Dunn, C. Budny, Jerome Park. Second Row: Kersten, Stollenwerk, R. Weber, W. Hayes, and W. Doran.

The M-H Club continued its fine tradition as one of the hardest working and most influential organizations of the school. The club is composed of all the major letter winners of all four years. Pictured here are the lettermen who are in their fourth year at M.U.H.S. They are: Front Row: R. Lein, R. Conforti, W. Gigl, J. Mitchell, J. Young. Second Row: J. Dwyer, P. Bach, W. Haushalter, J. Balistrieri, J. Collopy, E. Calvey. Third Row: T. Tallmadge, T. Ryan, R. Wilmot, R. Lutz, J. Pelter, R. Brezinski, R. Doering, and R. Schaefer.

The M.H. Club

Mothers' Guild

On November 1, the Annual Card Party was held by the Mothers' Guild of Marquette High. Some 2400 people attended the party which had a record profit of $9,863.

A few of the mothers preparing tasty snacks. The Mothers' Guild raised much needed funds for the upkeep and improvement of the school's educational and extra-curricular facilities.

Fathers' Club

Again this year, the Fathers' Club, under the moderation of Rev. R. T. Jones and the leadership of the very able officers: L. Gillick, President; P. Murphy, Vice-President; W. Bach, Secretary-Treasurer; sponsored the Father-Son banquet and baseball game. The program was a success as usual.

The moderators of the sodality groups of the school are Mr. Lofty, Mr. Neenan, Mr. Dervin, and seated, Mr. Brittell, Father Kelly, Father Reichmuth, and Father Grau. The moderators have monthly meetings at which they co-ordinate the Sodality movement at Marquette High.

Sodality of Our Lady

The men pictured to the left are either prefects or vice prefects of their respective senior sodality groups. They are: back row: R. Conforti, M. Ash, R. Josten. Front row: P. Bach, M. Voss, J. Fox. Some of their group projects have been teaching catechism to retarded children, running the Marquette SUMA meetings, and visiting poor families to gather information for Christmas food baskets. The clothes drive was run by the senior sodalists who belong to the central committee of the Sodality which keeps it running smoothly.

Pictured above are: G. Carlson, K. Voelke, both in the back row. In the front row: J. Bach, J. Dunn, J. Smith, and J. Bugge. The main apostolic projects of their groups have been: sponsoring the junior-senior Sodality mixer, working at the home of the Little Sisters of the Poor, teaching catechism to retarded children, taking the wheelchair patients of Woods Veterans Hospital to Mass. (The Junior Red Cross and the Catholic Action office are staffed almost completely with the junior Sodalists.)

The top men of the sophomore Sodality are: back row J. Park, J. Sazama. In the front row: T. Maruszewski, P. Sheehan, P. Riedl, J. Michalski. Some of the activities undertaken by the group were: handling of the two pamphlets racks, sponsors of the sophomore mixer, posting of the Legion of Decency ratings of movies, and the printing of bookmarks which discourage the use of bad language. One of the sophomore groups also prepared a Christmas basket for a poor family

Student Conclave

The conclave consists of one representative from each homeroom and from each major activity. It is the voice of the student body that decides the policy to be followed by all the students. First Row: Mitchell, J. Balistrieri, L. Gillick, Ash, Fr. Bernert, Thomas Bruett, Young, Coffey, Conforti. Second Row: Carlson, Foxx, P. Bach, Caffrey, Dwyer, Bugge, Stollenwerk, Konopka, Powandra. Back Row: Josten, Kringel, Welsch, Vint, Wilmot, Chojnacki, Knuese, Kersten, Gigl.

"Burdette for President" was the slogan for this campaign. The Milwaukee celebration was one of the biggest and wildest ever held for a world series winner.

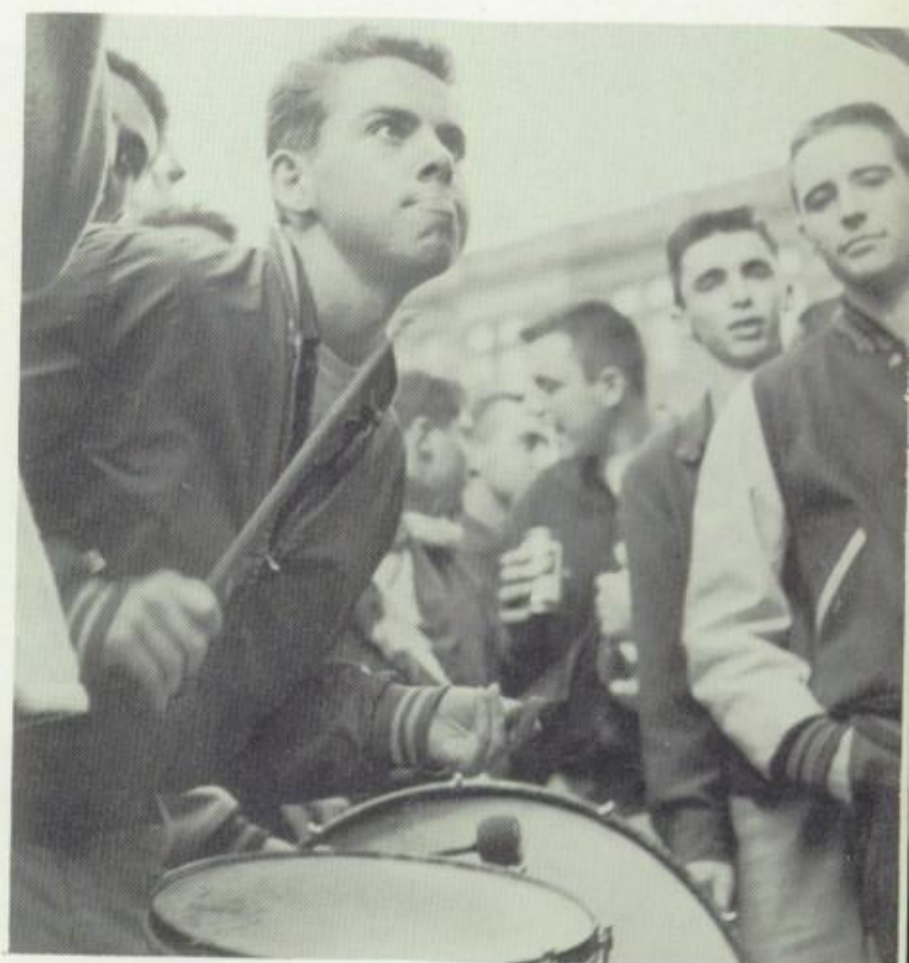

... land of the spree, home of the Braves

It's the '57 World Series and the Braves are in it. Mark Voss tunes a T.V. set as the class is allowed to watch a game.

One of the Milwaukee theaters was the scene of the celebrating.

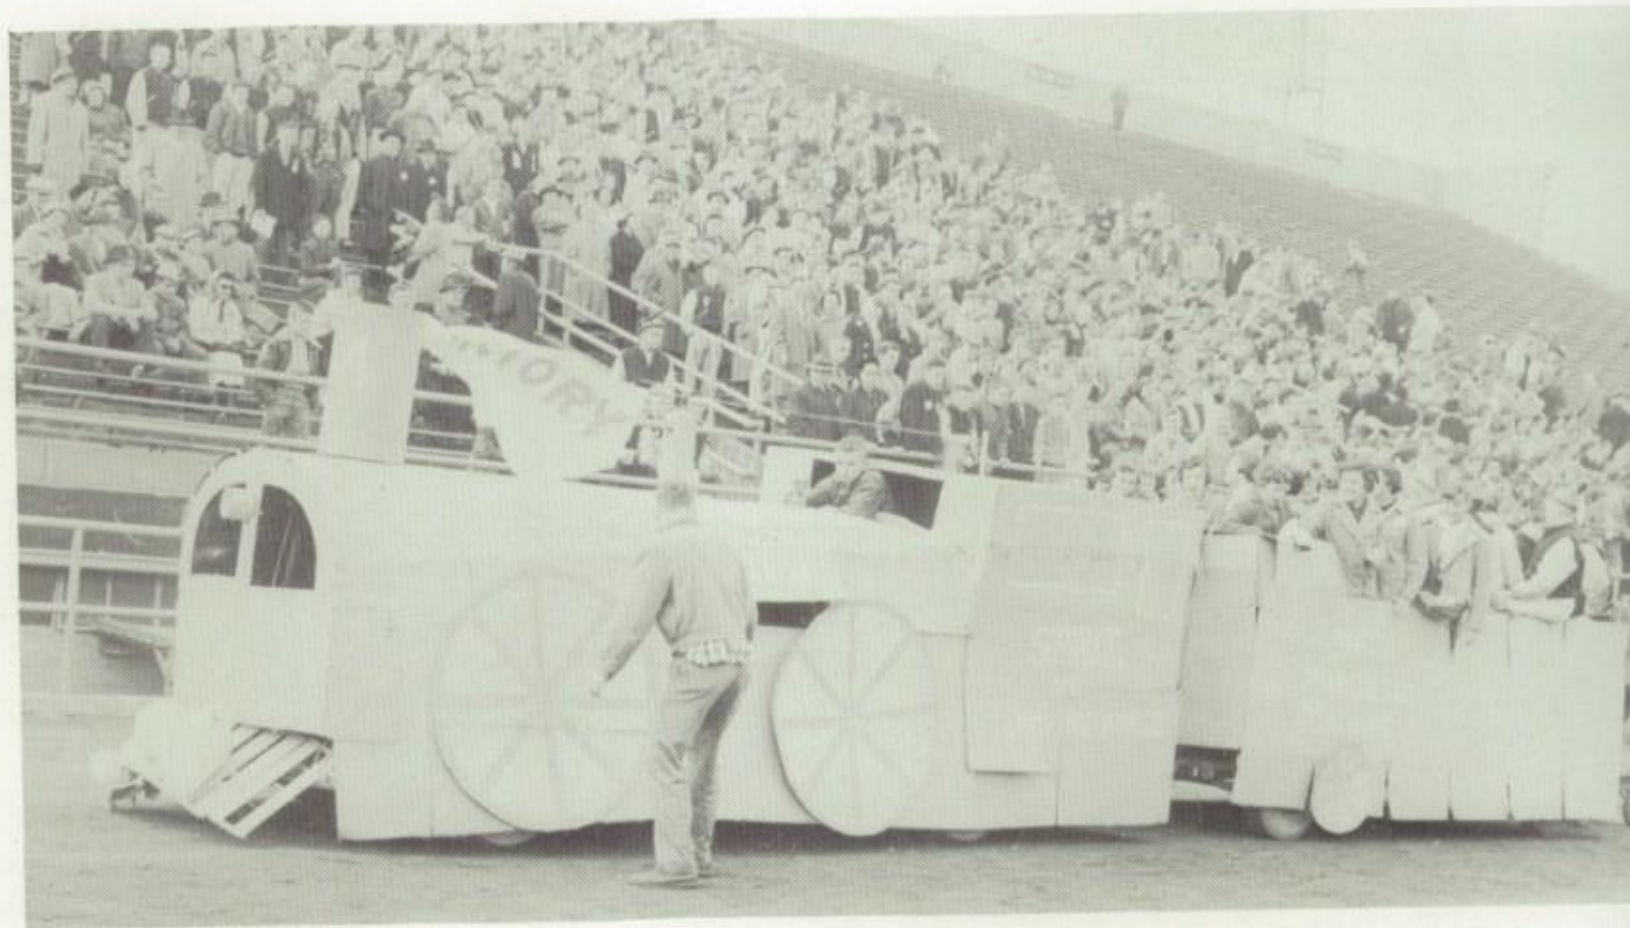

T. Harris hammers away at his drum as Marquette's band plays for the many jubilant Braves' fans in the down town section of Milwaukee.

"To 'H' with the Angels," was the winning float in this year's Homecoming parade. The blazing inferno was built by class G-1, who won this contest two consecutive years.

Homecoming 1957

"Spirit, the Driving Force of the Marquette Machine," was the second place winner in the parade. The blue and gold locomotive was prepared by class G-2.

During the half-time ceremonies, the members of the homecoming court were introduced to the crowd. The Queen and her attendants were presented bouquets of roses by Rev. Richard Pates, S.J., the former athletic director of Marquette High.

Senior Carnival

A winner! A doll carrying doll totes off a panda prize. Loot such as this was offered at many of the booths and the happy faces in the background show that losers as well as winners thoroughly enjoyed the festive occasion.

Judge McCarty takes a plunge into four and a half feet of icy H₂O. The lure of dunking a friend or drowning a foe drew long lines of sadistic patrons to this charming booth.

Mass movement is the best way to describe this typical scene from the Senior Carnival.

The civic ceremony which marked the dedication of the Pere Marquette Memorial brought to a close the Marquette High School Centennial Year. The six foot statue, carved in Carrara, Italy, stands in front of huge quartzite slab, on which is depicted the Mississippi River.

Close of the Centennial Year

Fr. Shinnars acted as the master of ceremonies at the statue dedication. He began the statue project and helped carry it through to its successful completion.

Mayor Zeidler, pictured here addressing the crowd, gave the event a civic atmosphere as well as a religious one.

Fr. Jones spoke to the fine turnout of students and other citizens of Milwaukee.

Fr. Edward O'Donnell, S.J., president of Marquette University, was a guest speaker. He spoke of the courage of Pere Marquette, and reminded the assembled Marquetters that our age, too, calls for heroic living.

The band is pictured here under the baton of sophomore James Robak. His excellent conducting of a well arranged program added much to the evening's entertainment.

Christmas Program

T. Caffrey, as the alchemist, is frightened at the appearance of M. Guerin as Hahalaba, the god of laughter.

T. Caffrey and J. Schaller are pictured in a scene from the play, "The Jest of Hahalaba", which won the Prep Players an "A" rating in the Wisconsin High School Forensic Association.

Under the very capable direction of Fr. Portz, the choir put on a truly fine performance for the audience at the annual Christmas Concert. Christmas carols and several general selections were all presented in professional style by the Marquette choir.

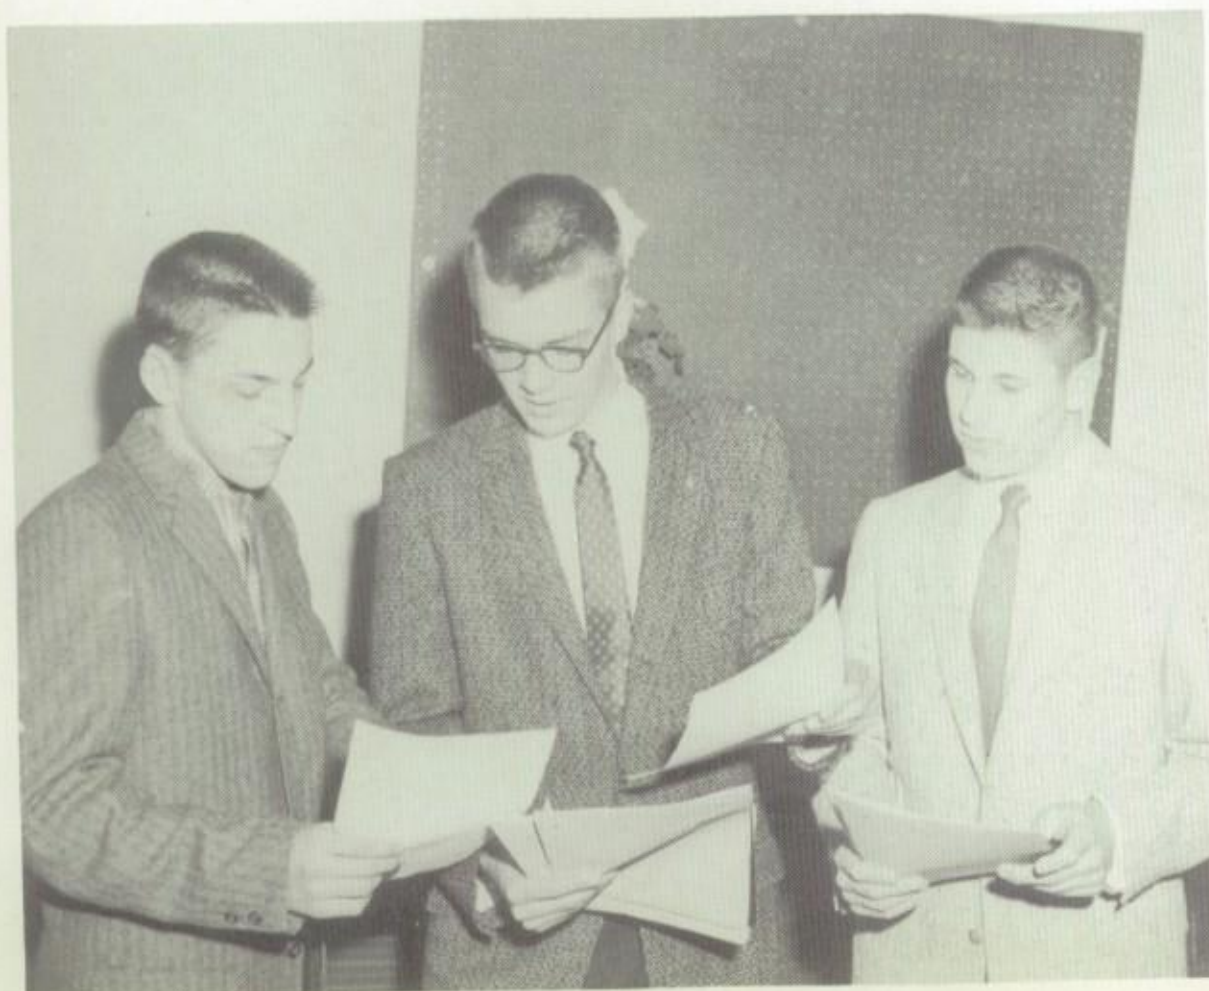

The band opened the 1957 Christmas concert and gave the audience an unusually fine show. Under Mr. Zinke's direction they presented a series of pieces which gave ample testimony of the band's long and serious practices.

In 1958 the Flambeau staff under its moderator, Mr. Hugh Otten, and its editors, Mathias Millen and John Coverdale, dedicated itself to the task of producing a record of "1958" at Marquette. With the aid of many who worked on last year's Medalist award winning yearbook, the staff has portrayed faculty, students, sports, organizations, and events which combined to create Marquette, 1958.

Business manager, Joe Cairnes, checks the day's subscription totals with Mr. Brittell, business staff advisor. Besides keeping tab on subscribers Joe's many duties included the direction of all commercial and class ad sales and the design and layout of the advertising section of the yearbook.

Looks like the day's work is over for section chiefs as Dick Rice, sports editor, Dennid Doyle, who engineered the Faculty section, and John Bugge, who designed and produced the attractive new underclass section strike an informal pose.

Photographic editor, Jim Fallon plans a week's work with head of the typing staff, Dick Boemer.

Production reports captured the attention of index chief Mike Molenda and the layout crew of Tom Boll, Dan Stangl, and Con Merten.

High quality photography is a tradition in the Flambeau. The three takers getting taken are Pat Hayes, Senior photographer Bill Hayes, and Jim Arpe. Editor John Coverdale also rolled a few hundred feet of film through his Rollieflex in the year-book's interests.

J., and Ash, was the sponsor of many projects this year. Among them are the Homecoming, Senior Carnival, Club '58, the Booster tournament, and the Senior Prom.

National Honor Society

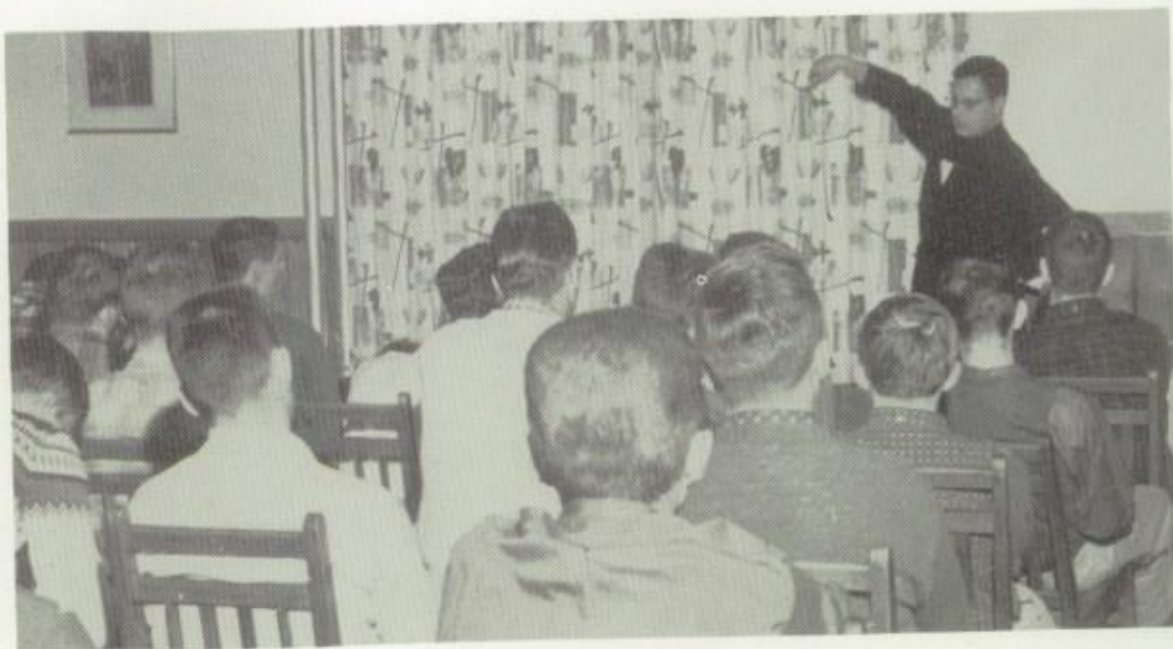

The National Honor Society this year undertook a series of reports on the "Panorama of American Culture" to give its members a better appreciation of twentieth century American culture. Reports on two books were given at each monthly meeting. The members pictured above are: 1st row: App, Zeps, Caffrey, D. Schmidt, Powondra, Coverdale, Balistreri, Fox, Felder, White. 2nd row: Kringel, Bruett, Lachenman, Wissing, W. Burke, Fr. SENIOR RETREATS

Here a group of seniors make their way up the stairs and out of the cold as they are about to start their retreat at Holy Hill.

Every retreat consists of talks and here is shown one of them being given to a group of interested seniors.

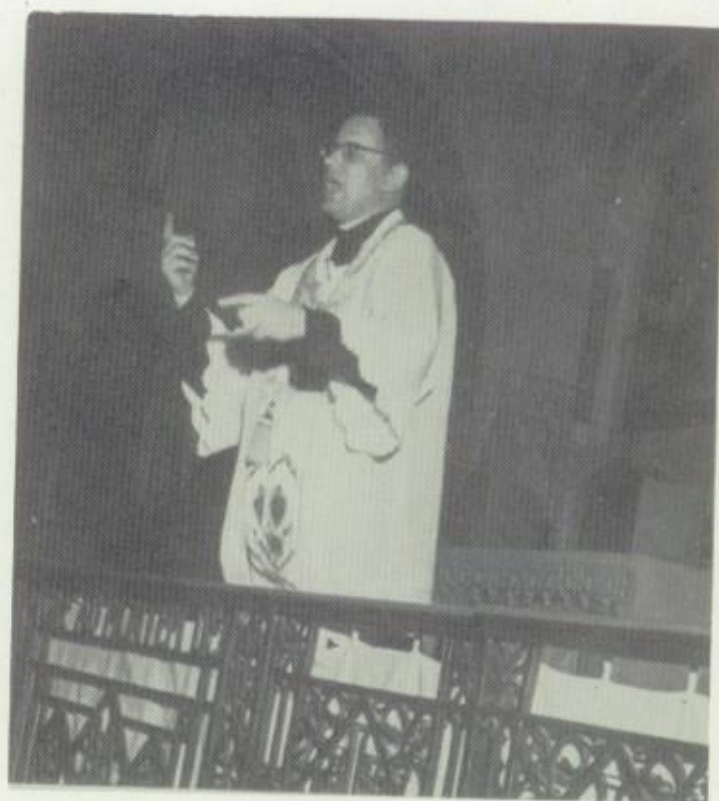

Fr. Richard Smith, S.J., and Chris Spalatin talk it over.

An everyday scene of the retreats

The scene of the Sacrifice of the Mass and Benediction is this beautiful altar at Holy Hill.

Directing the retreatants in their singing is Fr. Smith.

Pictured here are some freshmen as they attend a talk in the chapel. The retreat was something new for the freshmen and, as you can see, they are giving their full attention to the retreat master.

UNDERCLASS RETREAT

Fr. Gregory is shown here as he celebrated Mass. Fr. Gregory, the Junior retreat master was enjoyed by most of the Juniors.

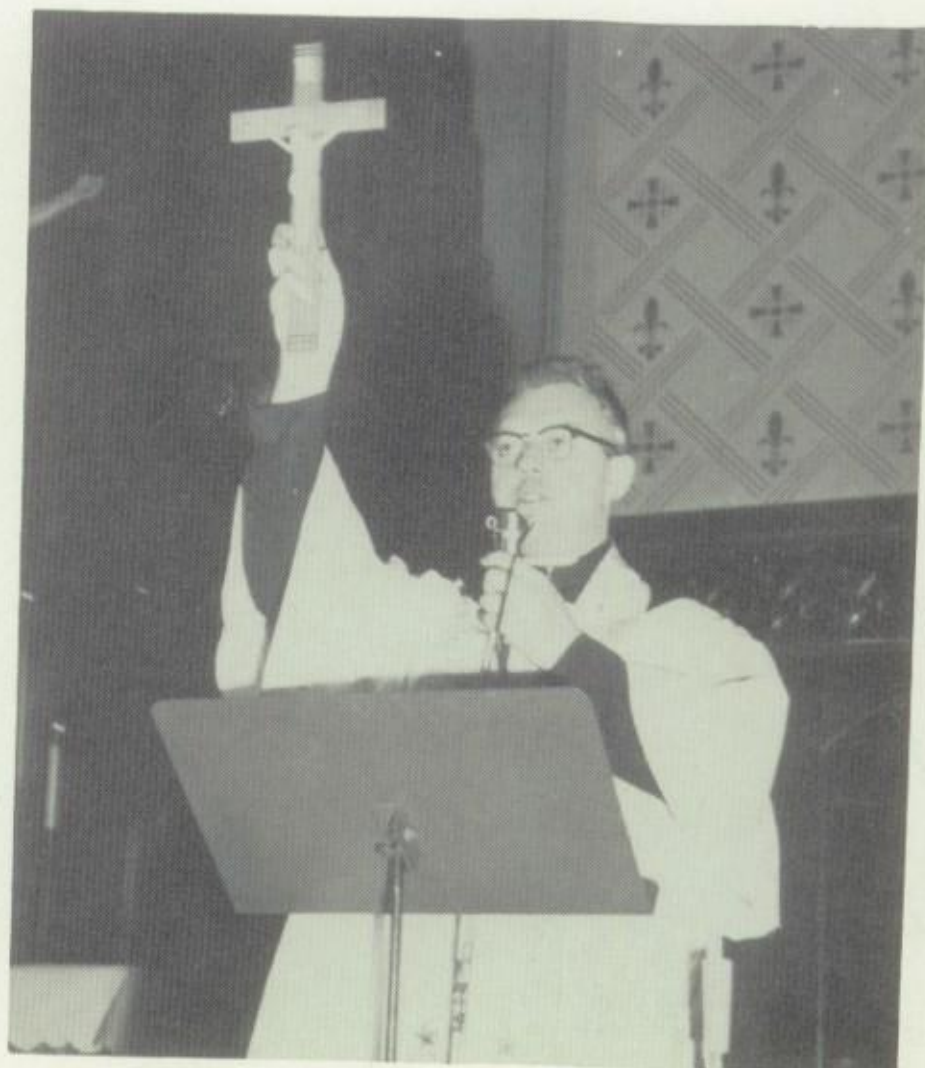

Mike Roe, a frosh, shown here is in personal conference with Fr. Carly who was the Frosh-Soph Retreat master. The personal conference is characteristic of the retreats given at M.U.H.S. Much is accomplished at these conferences.

Giving the Apostolic blessing is Fr. Gregory. This is obtainable by all who make a three day retreat. The blessing was given on the closing day of the retreat.

Marquette's varsity debate team was composed of Ash, Coverdale, Josten, Konopka, and Kringel pictured with their coach Mr. Neenan, S.J. The debates were held on United States Foreign Aid Policy. Marquette took second place in the finals of the Wisconsin High School Forensic Association and third in the National Forensic League debates. Konopka and Coverdale took a first and second respectively in the city finals of the Voice of Democracy contest. All of the varsity debaters were active participants in the forensic tournaments held after the end of the debate season.

Variety Show

One wintry February evening the students and teachers of Marquette University High School took time off from their usually serious pursuit of knowledge and abandoned themselves to the realm of the ridiculous. It was the evening of the 1958 Variety Show, the first of its kind to be presented at Marquette High. So enthusiastic was the response that the entire show was repeated for parents and friends a month later.

It is our hope that the following pages, in recalling the highlights of those zany nights, may serve as a fitting tribute to the hundreds that participated in another memorable Marquette "first."

Brother Juniper (Tim Walker) exchanges a few spiritual nosegays with early arrivals.

Fall of the House of Ushers? Norm Gumerman hasn't been looking well lately. The young lady in the background still can't believe her eyes.

Marquette's Mr. Theater, Mr. Schlenk, minds the stuffy business of producer for the Variety Show.

Many Strange Prizes were awarded by major domo, John Stollenwerk (right): this one seems to be an unidentified basketball player.

Yokel Boy Makes Good! Bob Grace discusses niceties of crop rotation and animal husbandry with city slicker Lee Vest.

The Show Began with a medley of swing classics played by Ed Dunker and his orchestra.

News Item: Tie Seen Wearing Man! Junior Pat Fallon plays fallen (matinee) idol, Irving, in heart rending hair-net drama.

More Variety Show

Which Twin Has the Toni? Lemon sisters, Jim Wilhelm (examining nails), Bob Hilmer, and Mark Grassberger await cue in wings.

Popular "D.S." Senior, Venus (Walt Kiedrowski) de Silo, trudges from the stage after delivering name of another intermission prize winner.

J—2 Thespian, Ron Bieganowski, ponders the sad plight (see left) of Irving in Hairnet sequence.

Stomach Upset? Oriental Wyatt URP (Phil Bach) shows signs of distress in Eastern Western.

Guisha Boy with King Size Tea Bag. "Cary Tums", says Bill as Bach burns from heart.

Close Harmony in a Western mode was provided by this group of Marquette music makers.

Turn off the Bubble Machine! Lawrence (Brian Flannery) Welk and Larry (Clem Budny) Looper manifest annoyance as bubble machine goes berserk.

Won'erful, Won'erful: The boys in the Welk Band pose for all you television fans out there. And by the way, thanks for all ada cards ana da ledders.

Still More Variety Show

Taking His Case to a Higher Court, Al Doyle passes through again.

Roving Camera catches glimpses of deliriously happy crowd.

Cool Quartet.
Carl Knuese, Tony Trinko and Tom Tondreau "beller out a ditty."

Little Disturbances like a body being thrown out of the balcony and the chase and capture of a dangerous criminal hardly marred the night's festive mood. Here (left) Brother Juniper makes it hot as Al Doyle tries to lam with the loot. The seed of crime bears bitter fruit (right). Crime does not pay!

Shoot, You're Faded!

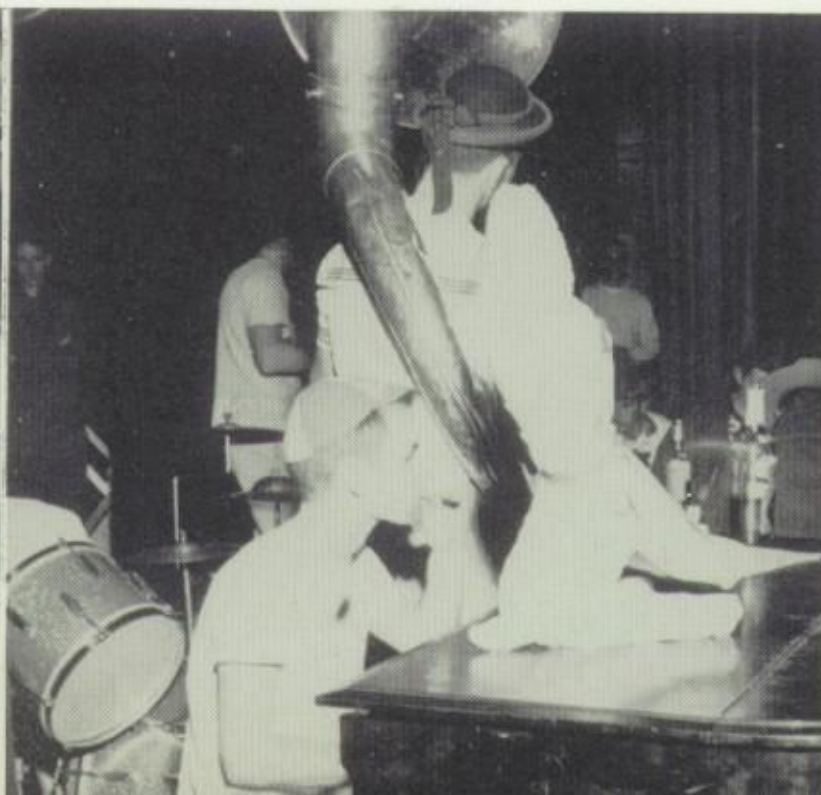

Photographic evidence that some numbers found audience actually "rolling in the aisles."

Delinquent Drummer, Denny Doyle, drops dainty drumstick while dauntlessly delivering dashing ditty.

Ear, Ear, Now! That Tickles, but Mike Gauer prepares to make it hot rabbit—with a rare-bit of "Auditorium Session."

Temperamental Songbird, Little Alice (Mike Callen) Lawn pouts between acts of Variety Show.

A Winner (left) Joy was usually short lived as good fortune boom-eranged. e.g. brand new 1958 model refrigerator turned out to be 25 pound cake of ice!

"After Six Years of Jesuit Education We Are Turning to Music for Support." Spooky alumni trio rendered, with other delights, school song in key of "M."

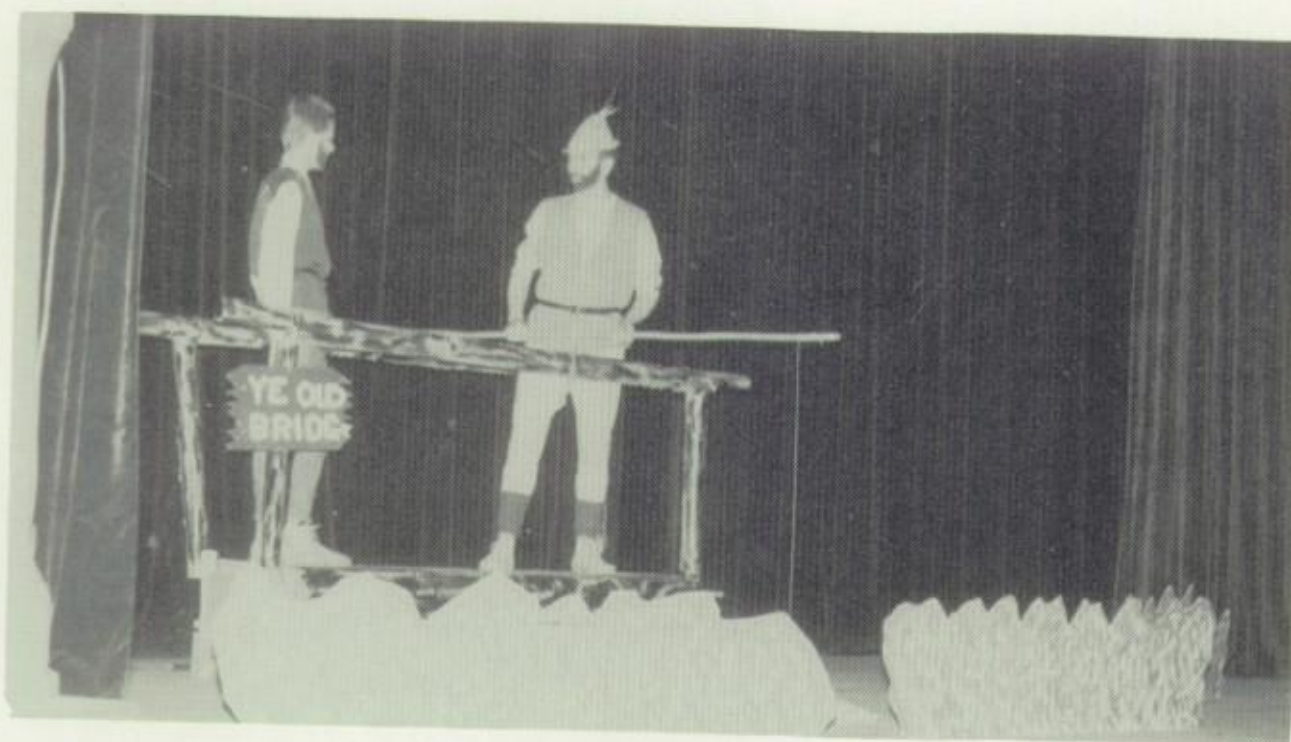

Winning Act, the TV Viewer, starred Ed Bielefeld, Bob Dettman, George Klingler, Tom Boll, and Tom Krueger.

You
Guessed
It!

Crazy, Man! Mike Gauer's band is a going concern since most of the musicians are "gone." When they finished a good share of the audience had gone, too.

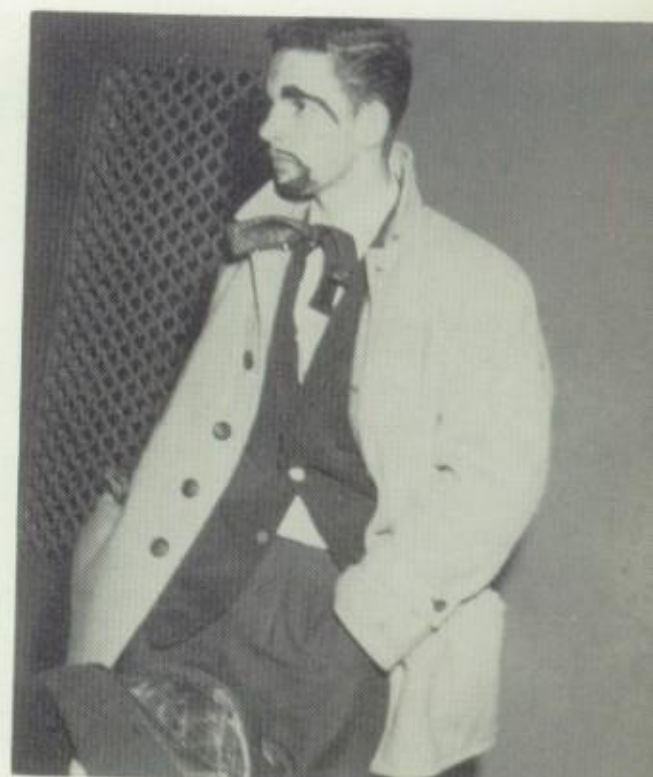

Robin the Hood, John Lukes, crosses sticks with Little John, Dennis McNally, in a scene from an all soph act that copped third place in the evening's competition.

Remove Your Wallet, Please— John Boyle applies familiar remedy.

Lone Hambone in a Sea of Hams. Dave Sonnenberg, noted hambonist (or is it hamboner?), has thigh slapping good time performing for variety show patrons.

Mississippi Gambler looking for a fish.

About to Be Sliced Up Like Baloney is Bob Archer, heroine of Variety Show melodrama, "Dastardly Deeds." Ed. Note: Villain finally fell on saw and rest of cast lived harmoniously thereafter.

Club '58

"So she went anyway." Mike Eagan and friend talk to Fr. Grau at the Senior dance. The Senior class dances are known for their decorations and as usual the Seniors of '58 did an outstanding job with the Blue and Gold room.

"This is the way it should be done," Bob Felder might say to his dance companion as they dance past one of the pillars of old Rome.

Kassow passes the pitcher after Ahrenhoerster finishes his tall tale.

Mike Wiesner sneaks a glance as his date seems to enjoy herself while watching the camera.

Art Konopka shows his winning smile as he dances to the fine music at Club '58.

John Haydoch doesn't trust anyone as he and his date whirl around the floor.

Club '58 Waiters

Dermody and Buscaglia check Bonneau's arm bands. This year's waiters for Club '58 were in ancient Roman costume.

At the left: The waiters weren't exactly in full costume as the shoes (?) of this waiter shows.

At the right: More work? John Bach is shown here as he wends his way through the crowd at Club '58

The sixteenth annual Lourdes Ball was held at the Eagles Club on February 7. At the left is pictured the statue of Mary which was set up in the ballroom. The theme of this year's ball was "Magic Moments."

This is how the crowd looked from the floor. The cold weather didn't seem to stop anyone for the attendance was very good.

Part of the crowd is pictured here as seen from the balcony.

Mixers

Who Wears Short Shorts? That is the question this surprised young man is asking at the Frosh-Soph Mixer.

A Soph and a friend pause briefly for a breath or two before returning to the gaiety of the mixer.

Fun was had by all who attended the Sodality-sponsored mixer for frosh and soph.

A group of frosh-sophs discuss last Sunday's game while an outsider shows outside interest.

The crowd enjoys the mixer held for the Juniors and Seniors and sponsored by the Sodality at M.U.H.S.

Camera-conscious Juniors, Welch and Kusterman "see all," while Binder and Kulczcki show how it's done.

Two smooth gents and their choices for the evening decide to "just dance."

Basketball Hop

The Basketball Hop was held in the gym on February 16. The Hop replaced the regular football dance this year. The M.H. Club sponsored this Junior-Senior dance.

That the hand is quicker than the eye, is witnessed by these couples, only part of the large number which attended. Most of those present commented on the fine and interesting decorations.

"Oriental Fantasy" was the show staged by a professional magician group during the intermission. The act proved to be mystifying and most enjoyable.

Senior Leaders

For the third consecutive year, the Flambeau honors those seniors who have typified the Marquette spirit in their activities. These ten seniors were chosen by a faculty committee for their loyalty, enthusiasm, and self-sacrifice displayed in religious, academic, social, and athletic activities.

They have given of their time and talents to improve both themselves and their school. Their backing of all school events has helped to maintain and build the Marquette spirit.

These seniors have already assumed the position of Christian leaders, a position in which they will be increasingly important in the years ahead. They leave Marquette this year, but they carry with them into the future the characteristic spirit of a Marquette man.

CLASS G-4

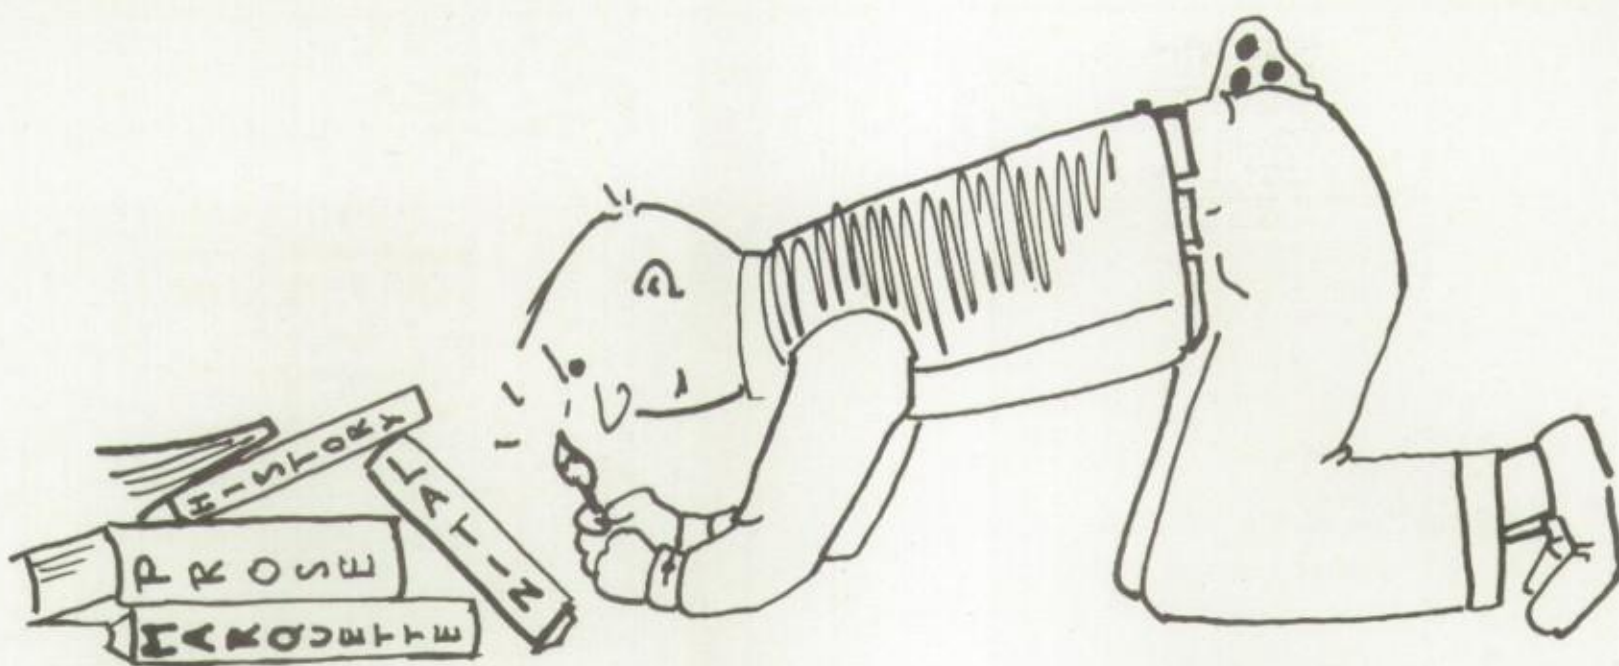

The seniors had a carnival
Our bit was smashing a car.
We made some money, had some fun!
G-4 was best by far.

Our homeroom had a float this year
"We Panda Win" its name.
Well, Marquette lost, our float lost too,
But it gave G-4 its fame.

But the thing we really did the best,
Of all the things we've done,
Was "Won'erful, Won'erful" by Lawrence Welk
And for that a prize we won.

Thanks
to you,
Marquette,
our future
Can't miss

Once upon a time there was...

a lady

looking for a better water heater

a farmer

searching for a better way to store and process feed

a shop
foreman

who wanted better
welding electrodes

and they all lived happily ever after with better products by
A. O. Smith

The lady's answer was a Permaglas glass-lined water heater... proved in more than 3,500,000 homes. The foreman chose A. O. Smith electrodes — made by welders for welders. The farmer found what he wanted in A. O. Smith's revolutionary, acre-stretching Harvestore feed processing and storage unit.

The key to each story, of course, is A. O. Smith's very special talent for finding a better way through research. It's a talent that has created many happy endings with better products for home, farm and industry—from automobile frames to furnaces and home air-conditioners... from pressure vessels to line pipe... from glass-lined processing equipment to petroleum meters.

Through research... a better way
